

RIGHTEOUSNESS OBTAINED BY FAITH NOT THE LAW. Rom 4:13-17

3/10/24

I. THE PROMISE TO ABRAHAM. 13

A. The Statement of the Promise.

1. The Connection.
2. The Content.

B. The Recipients of the Promise.

1. Abraham
2. His Seed
3. The Difference Between the Promise and its Recipients.

C. The Means of the Promise.

1. The Means That Is Excluded — the Law.
2. The Means That Is Effective — the Righteousness of Faith.

II. THE EXPLANATION OF WHY JUSTIFICATION IS NOT THROUGH THE LAW. 14

A. If Only the Jews Are Heirs, Then It Cuts Out Faith and Promise.

B. If Justification Is From the Law, Then the Promise and Faith Are Made Meaningless.

C. Why Isn't the Promise of Justification From the Law?

III. EXPLANATION OF WHAT THE LAW DOES. 15

A. The Law Produces Wrath.

B. The Law Shows Transgression.

1. A Transgression Is a Specific Kind of Sin.
2. No Law Means Not Boundaries To Go Beyond.
3. The Law Is About Boundaries, Not Justification.

IV. THE CONCLUSION ABOUT THE PROMISE. 16-17

A. The Conclusion Stated. 16

1. The Promise, That Is Justification, Is From Faith.
2. Justification Is According to Grace.
3. The Result Is the the Promise Is Certain for all Who Believe.
4. Because the Promise Is of Faith, According to Grace for all Who Believe, This Means That Abraham Is the Father of Us all...That Is all Believers, All Those of Faith.

B. The Conclusion Supported by Scripture. 17

1. The Scripture.
2. The Belief of Abraham.
3. The Power of God.